CLASS HISTORY

The first performance of our twelve years in school began in 1942. Bashful and afraid of all the new surroundings, we tiptoed into our rooms with our teacher Mrs. Stillwell, and our principal, Mr. Rondthaler, to find with us Joyce Church with her long black hair, Betty Hayes fighting with the boys, Barbara Hunter singing to herself, Nancy Moody crying for her mother and Ann Williamson who was just plain dazed with all that was going on. Then came our mischievous Jackie Matlock, Shirley Poindexter with a little brown notebook, and Sammy Smith who wasn't too thrilled about it all. Next came Frank Beckner, Richard Boner and Bobby Keaton looking for a fight, and Martha Wishon with a smile for everyone, and Peggy Todd with her long girlish curls. In walked Diane Sheek in her little short dress looking for Betty Scott who soon appeared with skinned knees, Jay Caudle ready for an education and William Creasy and Harry Davis eager to get away from it all to play ball. Who could it be but Sam Easley with a little camera in his hand, Myrtle Binkley tall and lanky, Shirley Smith and Shirley Craver getting acquainted, Billy Bean, Walter Tysinger and Jimmy Beck with water pistols, Alma Spaugh, Doris Anderson and Nancy Canter with little enthusiasm, Pansy Sloan with tears in her eyes and Peggy Tesh always arguing. Next came our little but loud Cleo and Leo Teague. Rennie Smith quiet but mischievous, Peggy Tysinger with pigtails, Alvin Ratledge, Edwin Robertson and Wade Hawk came in dirty and mad after fighting, and last we saw Columbus Case.

In the second grade we were lucky to have with us again Mrs. Stillwell. Those who joined us this year were: Lindon Canter, Dewitt Falls, Marvin Spaugh, Ray Veach, Jimmy Sheets, Carrie Craver, Ernest Griffith, and Bill Ellis.

Teaching us in the third grade were Miss Craver, Mrs. Bridger, and Mrs. Burgess. Those joining us this year were: Rayford Gann, Ruth Stone, Dean Matlock, Jackie Martin, Arthur Spaugh, Herbert Tesh, Terry Tesh, Joe Tilley, Lloyd Wrights, Richard Jones, Loretta Doby, Pete Sides, Joe Holder and Jerry Peoples.

In the fourth grade, Nancy Frye, Harvey Spaugh, Clyde Hendrix, Travis Howard, and Edna Whisenhunt joined us. Our teachers were Mrs. Gibbs and Miss Cooper, and our new principal was Mr. Gibbs.

Teaching us in the fifth grade were Mrs. Potts and Mrs. Cook. Those joining us that year were: Lois Carter, Sarah Martin, John Webster, Mamie Whisenhunt, Linda Foster, Albert Matthews, Gail McIntyre and Margie Spaugh.

Our sixth grade teachers were Miss Coble and Mrs. Moody. With us for the first time this year were: Bill Beshears, Ina Rattz, Betty Reed, Gilbert Brandon, Joe Bullins, Jr., Stanley Dunn, Dean Flora, Jimmy Knight, Roy Wrights, Carole Cole, Buddy Boger, Tommy Gardner, Betty Boles, Garner Foster, Corrina Gillespie, Mack Johnson, Lois Murphy, Patricia Skeris, Lola Mae Taylor, Helen Teague, Patsy Hendrix, Doris Pople, and Jerry Peoples after a year at Hanes, rejoined us this year.

In the eighth grade we had a new principal, Mr. Potts and our teachers were Miss Noble and Mrs. Crotts. Joining us this year in some of the high school privileges were: Versie Ashley, Ellen Dennis, Carolyn Kimel, Maxine Setliff, Garcie McCall, Odell Cheek and Wilson Wise.

Lee Hotel, which carried the theme "The Stork Club." This year we received our long-awaited rings. We were proud to welcome to Clemmons our Junior year, Mr. Robert Chilton as our principal, with his inspiration, his great love, and understanding. Mr. Moody and Mrs. Felton were our advisors. Our class officers were:

President—Sam Easley	Secretary—Peggy Todd
Vice President—Jay Caudle	Treasurer—Betty Scott

Those joining us this year were, Carolyn Billings, Robert Hutchins, Barbara Tuttle, Jean Butner, and Dewey Bodenhammer.

Our Senior year finally rolled around with advisors Miss Cook, and Mr. Hiatt with whom we leave our deepest love and appreciation for their guidance and kindness.

This year we published the seventh edition of Clemmemories, presented the Senior Play and were honored at a Junior-Senior Banquet. Last but certainly important to us, is our graduation.

President—Betty Scott	Secretary—Diane Sheek

Assistant Secretary—Peggy Todd

This, the year 1953-54 brings us to the center ring. But we are not finished, only beginning a new life that has been molded for us here at Clemmons High School. Without the help of our administration and faculty, our preparation would have been in vain. We can only say thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

As we leave, we wish to everyone of you, the best of luck, success and happiness and may God bless you all.

Sincerely,
Betty Scott
Sam Easley

CLASS PROPHECY

Come to the 1954 circus! The Boner & Bodenhammer's greatest show on earth!

There's nothing like a circus! The tent was filled, and out of all the dust, music, and laughter comes—"Peanuts, pop-corn, and crackerjacks!" The booming voice sounds familiar, as our memory recalls the years in high school, long past, when William Creasy's voice was a threat to all the teachers. We bought some pop-corn, and to our surprise, we were eating "Setliff's Home-popped Corn." We later learned Maxine had a factory called "Maxine's Cornery" in the heart of Clemmons.

The circus caravan started, and all eyes opened when the caravan was headed by a huge gray elephant. As it slowly trucked around the rings, we noticed its trunk was carrying the star trapez artist of the circus. She looked small beside the elephant; only Jacqueline Matlock's black tennis shoes could be seen. The feathers in her long, dark hair swayed as the elephant slung her 'round and 'round. Looking closer, we saw our old pal Bill Beshears driving a '64 bitter-sweet & black Mercury. He is now an Admiral in our Great Navy.

The procession continued into the main attraction. Suddenly a figure appeared and climbed swiftly into the mouth of the cannon. It was nobody but our own Stanley (Dare-Devil) Dunn! The crowd hushed as a cannon exploded. But no one came out. An ambulance, with the siren blasting, came at full speed down to the ring. Out jumped Shirley Poindexter and Martha Wishon in white uniforms. Ina Grace Rattz quickly got out from under the wheel. The nurses pulled Stanley out, and the crowd was breathless after the exciting episode.

Every circus must have clowns, and the Boner & Bodenhammer's aren't lacking in this! Bobby Keaton and James Sloan look as though they haven't changed much through the years. James' golden wig becomes him and Bobby looks natural in the red nose and black and white suit. We learned that both men are now worth millions of dollars. James owns a small newspaper in New York. I recall the name of the paper as being "Times"! Bobby has his sideline interest in the undertaking business; "Keaton's Karriers."

As we look around us, we see many familiar faces. Jerry Peoples looks distinguished in his Homburg derby. Since he was elected mayor of Peoplesville, Diane Sheek has quit her job at Clemmons H-Bomb Factory, and is now making other explosives. Nancy Moody is now cheerleading for the Giants, and for her side-line job, she sings with "Fred Waring's Pennsylvanians."

Fashion designer La Mary Charles designed the costumes for the circus. She has her own shop on Stadium Drive.

Everybody turns out for a circus! There is Odell (Lightening) Cheek! We heard that he is now head coach at the University of Atwood and doing a fine job. Speaking of sports, Joe Bullins just walked in; the audience recognized Joe at once. He just won the World International Senior Golf Tournament that was held in the thriving Metropolis of Hanes, N. C.

Several businesses have been built in Hanes. Roy Wrights, Gilbert Brandon and Bill Ellis own a large dairy. They even say the cows are pasteurized. Doris Pople, Pat Hendrix and Sammy Smith are very elegant ladies these days. They operate a beauty salon in Hanes, the name being "Curley Corner." The great model, Barbara Hunter, advertises "Kimel's Kennel Dog Food." Carolyn has a good grade of dog food, ground especially to fit the dog's cavaties.

We notice a local photographer is taking pictures, and it's none other than our own Sam Easley, now working at Station JKDM. Jim Knight and Dean Matlock recently opened another TV station. One of the main programs is the soap box opera, "Married Life at 45," with stars Peggy Todd and Wilson Wise. Speaking of married life, Betty Scott and Betty Reed are (outside of married life) playing ball for Hillcrest Golf Course and recently played on the USS Navy Ship Macon. Joyce Church and Betty Hayes just made two of their daring flights across the continent in only two hours, eight minutes, and four seconds. Their first words afterwards were, "We'll have another Big Orange." Ann Williamson just completed her second book, "Lonesome at Forty-Five," her first book being "How Not To Get a Diamond for Christmas." Frank Beckner and Dean Flora are busy these days with life in the Alps. Their home is in Innsbruck, Austria, where they own a skiing school, but they too, have come for the circus. Professor Jay Caudle, now nurse-maid to Einstein, has just discovered an atomic weapon that diminishes space. Everyone has been talking about the ingenious Professor Caudle. Ruth Stone is now art Director for Atomic Magazine, and enjoys her job very much, I hear. And, of all things I heard she has been working for the last few months with the Navy as a Frogman! Shirley Smith now owns a string of grocery stores throughout the Carolinas; Smith's Self-Service has really progressed.

Well, here we all are; each with his own occupation behind him, and enjoying himself immensely, but, on with the circus!

THANKS

Thanks to you, dear School Books,
For providing what we know.
We know that because of you
Our knowledge in the future will grow.

Thanks to you, dear Teachers;
Your patience had no end.
Our sweet memories of you
Will come as often as the wind.

Thanks to you, dear Principal,
For your guidance each day.
We know that our path of life
Will lead in the right way.

Thanks to you, dear Classmates;
We sincerely love you all.
Please honor and take care of our school—
Each room and each hall.

JACKIE MATLOCK

FAREWELL

Once in a while,
We'll be thinking of yesterday's memories,
Longing once more to be
Again with you.

We give our thanks
To our teachers
Whose interest and deep concern
Have inspired us to learn
What's best for us all.

So facing the future with courage,
We embark on life's stormy sea;
We're certain of what fate may bring us,
Assured of victory.

With grief in our hearts
And a tear of regret falling from our eyes,
Classmates of Clemmons High,
We bid our farewell.

FAREWELL!

We, the Senior Class, would like to thank Miss Fleta Hampton and Miss Frances Cook for giving so freely their time and help in the preparation of this edition of CLEMMEMORIES. Without their efforts, we are certain that there would have been no seventh edition. Thank you so very much!

The Senior Class wishes to thank Mr. and Mrs. T. Holt Haywood, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. T. Holt Haywood, Jr., and Mr. Charles E. Talton for their kind cooperation in preparing this annual.
